Fall Big Brew 2004

Saturday November 13th will be the CCLAM Fall Big Brew. Dave Consalvi will be hosting the Big Brew for the 2nd time in a row. Remember we had a fabulous day in May for the official Big Brew when we brewed an American Brown Ale with all Amarillo hops.

For the October meeting we will be formulating the recipes for the two different beers we'll be brewing. The club decided on one batch of Belgian Dubbel and one of Doppelbock. The price of these truly big brews will be slightly more than normal due to the expense of extra ingredients needed.

Members should come to the October 6th meeting ready to create one of these recipes. So bring any recipes you have and we'll throw against the wall and see what sticks.

September Jamboree

CCLAM brought a strong presence to the New Hampshire Homebrewer's Jamboree. All had a great time. Members participated in the judging, tasted regional microbrews and homebrews, and we had s'mores by a terrific campfire.
