CCLAMs and Summertime

We had a great summer with 2 cookouts, a camping trip, and a big brew of tasty Kolsch.

We would like to thank Chris and Carl for hosting the events and everyone for attending and making them successful. The camping trip was on short notice but proved to be a great time with plenty of food, beer, and an unusually cool September night to sit around the campfire.

We are anticipating a great showcase of Kolschs to taste at the next meeting.

Take special note of the last meeting minutes and of the information to the left regarding the first annual CCLAM Brewer of the Year.

The shirt off our back...

If you have a suggestion for a possible slogan for a CCLAMS T-shirt, email it to Chris ASAP. He'll compile a list we can vote on after we railroad, ah I mean reelect Adam to another term as club president.

LOOK AT ME MA I'M ON TOPPA THE WORLD!

Get your best brew ready for the First Annual CCLAMS Open
Who is eligible: any and all dues paying members

Rules: Open category, no style limits
NO Big Brew Beer
Everyone tries every beer, everyone votes
Bring 2 or 3 bottles or a growler

Vote early, vote often...

Annual club elections will be held at the October meeting.

I made him an offer he couldn't refuse...

Dues are due at the October meeting, $25 dollars for the entire family for the year.

Hot off the presses...

If you are interested in subscribing to BYO magazine or you would like to renew your subscription, you can sign up through the club. The cost is $24.95 for 8 issues and BYO will give half the subscription price back to the club.

Seeing Double Dunkel...

Carl promises to bring samples of our super bad ass imperial Dunkel to the next meeting.

Kuart and Schnitzel and Wurst OH MY...

Be on the lookout for an authentic German menu from the Aqua Grille in Sandwich, coming in late October. See Horst for more details.

Save the date...
