Will Travel for Beer

Have you ever found yourself traveling and wondering where to find some good brew?

A little research ahead of time can easily satisfy all your beer needs. Pubcrawler (www.pubcrawler.com) allows searches by city, zip code, or area code. You can specify breweries, brewpubs, or beerbars. Previous visitors share their ratings on each location.

Once you've selected which brewpub to visit, you can use Beer Advocate (www.beeradvocate.com) to find specific ratings on each individual beer offered. Of course you may just want to try them all.

Get Your T-Shirts!

The club logo is now available on t-shirts, jackets, and just about anything you can embroider. Advanced Embroidery located on Plant Road off of 132 in Hyannis is the official supplier of all CCLAMs merchandise. Members can stop by and browse the large inventory of items available for purchase which include the price of embroidery. The club has already paid the setup fee so we're expecting everyone to be decked out in new CCLAMs gear by the next meeting.

For members interested in hats there is a minimum order which can be addressed at the next club meeting. For more info call Advanced Embroidery at 508-776-6516.

Don't get duped by imitators, only Advanced Embroidery offers official CCLAM logo wear.

Membership Dues

It is now time to pay membership dues. Dues have been set a $20 per family membership. Payment is requested by December per club by-laws. The executive officers hope everyone will appreciate what the club funds have provided during the last year:

- Spring Brewery Tour to Providence at no member cost
- Logo T-Shirts available at Advanced Embroidery at a nominal cost
- Off-Flavors Course this Fall for all to increase their knowledge of when good homebrew goes bad
- Discount at Cape Cod Homebrew courtesy of Todd Marcus.

Leslie and Horst

As many of you are aware from the emails over the past few weeks Leslie was involved in a plane crash on Nantucket. Recently Leslie returned home to Osterville. Horst has requested no visits until Leslie has adjusted to being home, but phone calls and cards are welcomed. We'll continue to keep Leslie and Horst in our prayers and look forward to continued good news with her recovery.
